FREEHOLD BOROUGH ARTS COUNCIL
1/18/18

Dear Friend,

Through the efforts of local businesses like you, Freehold Borough has become a destination of choice in Western Monmouth County for Dining, Retail, Concerts, Street Festivals, Parades, and More.

The Freehold Borough Arts Council with the help of the Ancient Order of Hibernians St. Oliver Plunkett Division #16, the Freehold Elks Lodge No. 1454, and DowntownFreehold.com are working together to make the 7th Annual Freehold St. Patrick's Day Parade on Sunday, March 17th, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. the best one yet.

With your financial support we will be able to add additional traditional Irish Pipe and Drum Bands and incorporate local High School Bands into the parade which will certainly add to the fun and spirit of the event. With the cooperation of the City we are extending the parade, starting at 10:00 a.m. from the Hall of Hibernians and to the Elks Lodge which we expect will also add to the festive nature of the day.

With your help we can look forward to another great parade to enhance our Downtown with the sights and sounds of all things Irish. We appreciate your help and a great effort to make Freehold Borough a great place to live, work, and play.

While all groups are invited to march for free if registered there are several ways you can support the effort:

"The Arc of Brown Bodies: commoditized, objectified, deified". A retrospective of the ways of seeing women. This exhibit examines how and why the female form dominates as subjects for the artist(s) and hopefully offer some ideas about ways to equity. The Arc of Brown Bodies is just that; from indigenous to us, to immigrant to enslaved and their children. Hopefully, you find it honest, and not the popular and self-serving and with new metaphors that reflect Black Lives and #Metoo. Curated: by Roots and Culture Gallery

3. Saturday February 24, 2018

1:00 PM - "African-Americans in Times of War".

Freehold Reformed Church – 67 West Main Street, Freehold, NJ (Free)

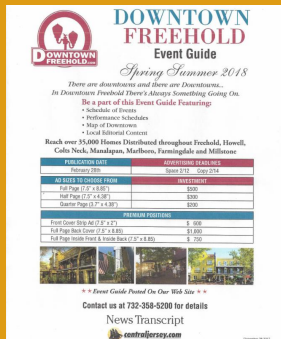

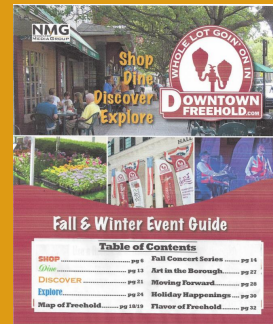

This program will be a celebration featuring multiple choral and musical selections, dramatic presentations, and speakers centered around "African-Americans in Times of War". It will enlighten you by highlighting the contributions and struggles of African-American men and women "who have in the past" and those who continue to serve in our United States military. Celebrating their courage and selflessness, we will honor our veterans and pay tribute to the fallen souls in a candle light ceremony! We urge all who have served in any branch of our military to attend! Celebrate African-American History Month by hearing the untold stories of the countless honorable black men and women and be inspired by the roles they played in times of war!
